My Wish

If I could have any wish in the world
It wouldn't be a squirrel,

Nor bat & ball, will you ever know
at all?

Nothing I will ever see can take this wish away from me

I'd wish to be wealthy & wise

Obviously, to no one's surprise.

But then one kid would say to me,
"Donate it to charity!"

But then I'd have a choice to make

Oh dear, what path shall I take?

Should I sleep or grab the rake?

Welcome To the Jungle

BY: JONAH MILANOVICH

I wish I was the jungle. With Conrad, me and Sully. With three machete and three donky.

We were in the jungle. One day ago we skydived into the jungle. We landed in a river full of alligators that were for me Sully and Conrad. So we jump for a vine it turned out to be a jagwiers tail. So we jumped on a alligator's face. We jumped to a mother vine it was a pithan. So we jumped it was a real vine. Then we jumped down and slept in a cave for the night.

IF YOU SWALLOW A SEED

By Jaden Onibokun

If you swallow a seed, it will get stuck in your throat. Your mom and dad will think about what to do. They better hurry up because the next day you are a tree. Don't be angry that you're a tree. In a few months you will poop it out. The seed will travel through the sewer system to the ocean. Then in the ocean, a fish will think the seed is lunch. The fish will swallow it. And the whole system will happen again.

BY: NATHAN REYNOLDS

Once upon a time, Billy, the Martian hamster, came upon a human. He tried to be friendly but it's a little hard being a giant, Martian hamster, so the human ran away. Billy followed the human to it's "What is that," thought Billy. The human ran to it and tried to fly away. Billy put his paw up so it couldn't fly away. On the side it said "Apollo 11", Billy knew that Apollo 11 was a spaceship. He thought about it, but he let the spaceship go.

The End

This extraordinary plant is just like normal Alexa. But there is a twist it still can play music but it also grants wishes. To plant it you will need a very sunny spot with hard dirt. Then you a feet deep hole and make it 2 inch wide then put the seed in the hole cover the hole with dirt and put 1 gallon of water then you will not need to water it again. It will grow in one month and in the pack there are 10 seeds and it costs 1,000 to buy.

The worst part about my weekend

I had to take this gross, horrible, disgusting and disgraceful medicine for an allergy treatment in Long Beach. The taste was a disgrace to humanity. Worse than Mucinex. It took 56 minutes to choke down 10 milliliters. The medicine was red—the color of blood. I would much rather take blood than that medicine.

The Wish

There was a girl in the town of Bonaville. She had a mission, her mission was to wish in the wishing well at the mall. Her father said she could pick the wish. So she did, she went to the wishing well at the mall and she wished for all the riches in the whole world. The next day she got all the gold, diamonds, and jewels. The riches filled up the whole entire house, she made her whole family move out except her.

The second day she got all the money and power in the world. Now her wish was granted fully. On the third day she was missing something. She knew exactly what it was but she didn't want to admit it. Finally she broke and she ran to find her family. Her family missed her so much they had a big family reunion. She gave the riches to the world and she was happy with her family with the rest of her life.

One Wish

I get one wish, Yipee!

From head to toe, I'm filled with glee!

One shiney penny,
just for me!

Oh no! Oh no! Oh dear!

There are to many choices, I fear.

What if I wish the wrong one
Then I am afraid, my wishings done.

do not worry! one says to me
no wish could lead to feliny!
and hapiness, that did bring and away my doubts I did fling

next time have no fear, be wise.
for wishing is not some thing to dispize wishing is fun! as you can see it fills you head to toe with glee
