Due to efforts to lessen the spread of COVID-19, all in-person events planned for the 7th Biennial ASU Chaucer Celebration 2020 have been cancelled – but the Video Contest will continue! Please note the extended deadline for submissions of March 30, 2020. The Awards Ceremony will now take place via Zoom.

We're looking for a video—no more than 5 minutes long—of a scene from one of the works of Geoffrey Chaucer. We prefer a video that is suitable for most adult audiences, and would likely be rated PG-13 or TV-14. For a list of Chaucer's works, see: www.newworldencyclopedia.org/entry/Geoffrey\_Chaucer#List\_of\_Works.

NEW! You must be available for the Awards Ceremony on Thursday, April 16, 9:00-11:00 a.m. that will now take place via Zoom. Your award-winning video will be shown to all those logging into the Awards Ceremony (URL of the Awards Ceremony to follow).

Videos must be hosted only at Vimeo, YouTube, or your video blog, where they must be publicly accessible. We'll also need your name, email address, and, if you're a minor, the telephone number of a parent or guardian who can grant permission for the video to be reposted in public. You, or your parent/guardian, must also click the button allowing us to share and repost the video. Winners will be notified before the awards ceremony. Every person appearing in the video must sign an ASU Release Form.

ASU sponsors of "Chaucer Goes to the Movies" include the Dean of Humanities in The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Department of English, Arizona Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, ASU Library, Virginia G. Piper Center for Creative Writing, Institute for Humanities Research, and Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College.
